

DEPARTMENT OF INTERIOR ARCHITECTURE AND ENVIRONMENTAL DESIGN

TECHNICAL TRIP, 14.10.2011

Department of Interior Architecture and Environmental Design organized a technical trip with the students of IAED201 Design Studio course to Saray Restaurant in Kuşadası. In 2011-2012 Academic Year, Fall Semester, students will be working on an adaptive reuse project and they will be designing a workshop where artists like Ben Harper, Duman, Mehmet Aksoy, Jamie Kennedy will find the chance to run workshops with different groups such as elderly people or children.

45 students were accompanied by Asst. Prof. Dr. Deniz Hasırcı, Didem Özdel, Sedef Menteşe Akad, Zeynep Edes, Rana Vanlı Ballar, Korhan Sarginer, İpek Kaştaş, Melis Kavvas and student assistant Bilge Merve Fidan in the trip. Students had the chance to survey the project site, collect information and to take photographs. Following the trip, students drew the plan, sections and elevations of the restaurant and prepared detailed analysis presentations for the site.
