“Professional Experiences”

Sertan Özbudun, partner of Bun Design, gave a seminar to 4th year Interior Architecture and Environmental Design students on 23 November within the course IAED 451 Applied Workshop I in Interior Architecture and Environmental Design. Özbudun informed students about typography and its use in Interior Architecture. He also shared his experiences on design processes of affordable, fun and functional designs that are created within Bun Design. He also emphasized the importance of Interior Architecture as a profession in the world and explained how his design approach evolves with the projects that he works on from different fields
